POOR OLD FITZ

IS WHEEKEE AWAY

Collapsed in Thirteenth Round of Fight With O'Brien.

FIGHTING MACHINE ALL IN LAST BATTLE OF THE FAMOUS CHAMPION.

Mechanics' Pavilion, San Francisco, Dec. 20.—Robert Fitzsimmons collapsed at the close of the thirteenth round of his fight with Jack O'Brien tonight. He had fought hard, but nature could no longer stand the strain, and after the going runs for the close of the thirteenth round, he threw up his arms and sat in his chair. Then his head fell over on his breast, his whole body collapsed and the fighting machine was all in. Referee Grady saw his condition and awarded the fight to O'Brien.

Made a Game Fight.

While punched in the face and badly out of shape and several times in jeopardy, Fitzsimmons always managed to come to and resume the fight. Just at the close of the thirteenth round he landed a left on O'Brien's stomach, but the fighting machine came back with a similar blow and followed it with a light left to the jaw. The going runs for the close of the round and Fitzsimmons walked to his corner. As he sat down he said to Referee Grady: "He hit me in the stomach and it is all over." O'Brien's head sank and Bob Fitzsimmons was defeated.

Prostrate in the Ring.

After the fight had been awarded to O'Brien Fitzsimmons slipped to the floor and lay prostrate for some time. He was a call for a doctor, as it was feared he was in a state of collapse. He revived, however, in a few moments and with the assistance of his seconds, was able to leave the ring. O'Brien gave a remarkable exhibition of sparring and footwork. He ducked and dodged and side-stepped in a manner that was bewildering. Fitzsimmons would back and find the empty air, several times nearly went through the ropes from the force of his misspent blows.

Crowd Was With Fitz.

O'Brien would straighten up and dash in wicked, quick blows, but he was not possessing knock-down power, was sufficient to jar the old gladiator. Fitzsimmons has the sympathy of the enormous crowd, which hissed and jeered O'Brien when he ducked and ran away. But the Philadelphia man had left no doubt of his ability and could not be coerced into mixing things with the old fighter who was known to be a dangerous man. Before Fitzsimmons left the ring he made a little speech, in which he said that he had done the best he could, and that he had fought his last fight.

Fitz Before Fight.

"I am better than when I fought Jeffries. I am in great shape. I will win this fight. Yes, sir, take it from me. I feel like a winner, and before midnight tonight I will be a winner," said Fitzsimmons just before the fight.

O'Brien Before Fight.

"The betting doesn't worry me. I'm ready to make the fight of my life, and I'll stop the old man long before the twentieth round," said O'Brien.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

Both Men Very Cautious in Opening Round.

In the first round not more than four blows were exchanged. O'Brien contented himself with dancing about with Fitzsimmons following but seldom attempting to land.

In the second round Fitzsimmons crouched low, and after O'Brien had missed left for the face he whipped his left and right to the face and head. Fitz drove O'Brien into a corner and then drove O'Brien a hard left intended for the jaw. In the break that followed Fitz got in a light uppercut to the face. O'Brien suddenly shot his left to the face, but catching Fitz off his balance, drove right and left to the face, and they clinched. O'Brien was very quick and had his right missing him a foot over at times. Fitz suddenly shot his right and left to the face and O'Brien countered with a short-arm left as the bell rang.

Round 4.—O'Brien forced Fitz to the ropes and Fitz left on his left knee. He came up quickly and put a hard left on O'Brien's eye. O'Brien closed in, landing several straight lefts to the face, drawing blood from Fitz's mouth and nose. It was O'Brien's round.

Both Exchange Lefts.

Round 7.—O'Brien planted his right over the kidneys and quick as a flash worked right and left swings to the jaw. Fitzsimmons, however, went after O'Brien sending his left to the face and a stiff right uppercut to the body. Fitz shot his left to O'Brien's face and followed it with a right swing to the face, one of which raised a big bump over Bob's right eye.

Both Men Tired.

Round 9.—Both appeared tired at this stage. Fitz's face presented a bloody sight. O'Brien, after hooking a terrific right to the jaw, followed it with two wicked left uppercuts to the face, and as the bell rang nearly raised Fitz off the floor with a straight jab on the face. Fitz retaliated with a straight jab on the face and swung his left to the face. O'Brien shot in two lefts to the face as Fitz missed a right swing and quickly landed his left twice over the mouth. Suddenly Fitz hooked his right with a hard left to the face and O'Brien's expert Fitz appeared to recuperate, but went to his corner rather dazedly. It was O'Brien's round.

O'Brien Sent to Ropes.

Round 11.—Fitz in a mix drove O'Brien to the ropes with a terrific right swing to the face. O'Brien shot two lefts to the jaw and then struck rather low.
